2. Topics

3. USDBRL opened at 5.1146 with some relief that the attack of Iran to Israel might not escalate to an open war, although market remains cautious about th reaction of Israel. USDBRL moved to the strongest level at 5.1067 right after the opening depreciated in line with its peers. The strong retail sales reversed the market mood. UST yields soared and DXY index arose. USDBRL reached the weakest level at 5.1898, a level not observed since October last year. The government announced that 2025 primary balance target will be reduced from 0.5% of GDP surplus to zero, something already incorpoarted by the market, but it damages the government credibility. USDBRL reached the weakest level at 5.2144 and it closed at 5.1850.
